“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of Wendell. I know this is a trying time for your family so I would like to offer a word of encouragement by means of God’s book, the Bible. The Bible speaks of a time when death and mourning will be no more and we can find that time at Rev 21:4 which says “4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” This time of pain and death and sorrow will be short lived. Please find comfort in the fact that soon, you will see Wendell again and mourning will be no more. May your family find peace from the God of comfort.

I am so very sorry for the loss of your loved one. The word tells us that to be absent from our earthly body is to be present with our Lord. May the Lord breathe peace and comfort into those who lived him.

He was more like a brother than a brother in law. We will miss him so much, but we know he is without pain now and with his loved ones who went before him.
