“ Uncle Edward meant the world to me growing up. One of the highlights of spending time at MeMaw's was being picked up by Uncle Edward and riding in the back of his truck to the store then to his house to spend the night. This was my first experience of what a true Christian family was like. He taught me how to pray. I love you Mina Faye, Shelia, Melody, Becky, and Lavon. My heart goes out to you and all the family.

“ I loved Mr. Stephens so much. He was always so kind to me as a child. I hate that I will be out of town this weekend and unable to attend his service. I will see him again soon in heaven.
