Gerald Harmon was a good man, he loved his Auburn Tigers! We would have so much during football season, he'd yell out at you "War Eagle" no matter where you were or who you were with 🤔🤔 we loved bickering with him about the Crimson Tide. Gerald will be missed by many people, he was an icon here in Oxford Alabama!!! Rest In Peace my friend 🕊

“ This man was one of the greats. I have so many memories back when I was a youngster. He was my football coach. I can remember him bringing me to Auburn football games. He would take pictures on sidelines.

“ Gerald was one of my dearest friends. We have been friends since grammar school. Played a lot of football together in high school and he was one of the toughest players I ever played with. Gerald had many friends in Oxford who loved him dearly. I'm going to miss our daily phone calls. When I answered his calls it was always "what's up Big Al"! Glad he is finally reunited with Jeanette, who he missed so much. His daily trips to her grave proved that! Fly high my friend, and just for you from a Bama fan, War Eagle buddy!!
