“ I remember with a smile on my face on our trip too New Orleans when we got a little bit tipsy as we visit Pat O'Brien's and ordered the wrong cocktail :-)
We had such a lovely time.

Thank you for this trip and your open House for all of us.
Love and peace

“ There is so many memories it's hard to pick one but one of my favorites was when I would go clean her house and I did for many yrs she had her husbands ashes in a beautiful urn sitting different places and I would dust and I would notice every so often the urn was turned around so that the name was in the back so finally I asked her after a long while and she told me she was mad at him. And when she got unmad she turned the name right back around, I laughed and said only you Geisla, 😊 God only made ONE.. Thk you God for for crossing our paths I love you and I will miss you so ❤️ 100 till we meet again 😊 may perpetual light shine upon you love always Jeanne Macon

Gisela's passing leaves those who knew her as a friend, will continue to grieve her loss, long after the formalites and various celebrations of her life.

Many are just now knowing the Gisela who was a giving and caring Christian supporting many efforts to improve the lives of our youth, or persons with life hurdles and do so without fanfare, and praise. Gisela was memorable and loved. Souls suchs as hers pass through our lives and many have been blessed to be considered a friend.

Love and prayers go up to you Gisela. You will be missed by Bill and I and so many more friends. It was always fun and interesting being with you, at our house or your house or going to the opera . And there was one night I called you about 11:00 at night to let you know your sweet, lovable dog was at our house in our bed and I knew you would sad and worried where she was. And you were there in 5 minutes knocking on our door to take her home.
