

Mrs. Gladys Elizabeth Storey

March 25, 2024

Gladys Elizabeth Storey, 81 of Eastaboga passed away on Monday, March 25, 2024, surrounded by her three boys.

She is survived by sons Laurence G. Storey II (Jeanie), Robert L Storey (LeAnne), and Donald W. Storey; brother Donald Holt (Patsy), grandchildren Samantha Storey (Josh), Jesse Storey, Laurence Storey III, Sarah Storey, Kyle Storey (Katherine), Nicole Storey (Jimmy), Stephanie Paquin (Nick), Jamie Horton (Chance), and Donald W. Storey II (Kaylyn), great grandchildren Ayden Janeaux, Sadie Elkins, Willow and Mila Horton, Effie and Frank Paquin, Mckenzie Robertson, Noah Storey; nephews Matt and Andy Holt, and niece Lori Medders.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Laurence G. Storey; parents, David Drummond (Emma) and Dorothy June Holt (Hubert), and brother John Howard Holt.

Gladys was born in Penns Grove, New Jersey, where she met the love of her life, Laurence “Larry” Storey. They traveled extensively due to Larry's service in the United States Army and eventually settled in Eastaboga upon his retirement. Gladys worked for American Greetings and Magic Chef and later pursued a nursing degree in her 50s, working at RMC in Anniston for several years. In her 60s, she became a breast cancer survivor.

She was an accomplished painter, an avid reader of Stephen King and Larry McMurtry novels, a fan of true crime shows, and cherished time with her beloved pets.

Gladys was a loving and devoted wife, daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She enjoyed visiting her family at their various military outposts and had a talent for practical jokes. Gladys was loved deeply, and her absence leaves an immeasurable void.

Services will be held for immediate family only.

“ I will always remember Aunt Gladys making me feel special when she would come to visit. She took time to play with me, talk with me like I was an adult, and taught me how to play chess. She was funny and always kept me laughing. I am so sorry she has passed, and I will always treasure my memories of her. My deepest condolences to the entire family and her friends.
