“ Glenn helped us find a garage-apartment available for rent from his neighbor, when we moved to Oxford, AL from MS. I had contacted Genn as president of the Cheaha Trail Riders, and he was incredibly friendly and helpful. I always enjoyed speaking with Glenn at club meetings and on the trail and will certainly miss his huge smile and friendly handshake. The world needs more of that today.

“ The first time I met Glenn was at a NOHVCC conference around 2005- the last time I saw him was at his house about 2018. Such a wonderful, kind and generous man, always smiling, always happy. My husband, Nick and I were coming back from a NOHVCC conference and had stopped at the Barber Museum, which isn't far from his house, we spent the entire afternoon talking with he and Ivey. I'm so glad we had that time together. Ivey, please accept my heartfelt condolences for you and your entire family. Such a delightful person to have known - "hi, my name is Gleeeyun Myers." I'll never forget that drawl...With much love and many prayers, Carol L. Smith

“ I first met Glenn when I started to work at National Gypsum and Glenn worked there. We would be friends for the duration. Always a pleasure to have as a friend. He would call me many times up in the office to see if he had a fax concerning the motorcycle trails or some special drawings. Once a week he would bring me a hard piece of candy. If I wasn't there he would leave it on my desk right in the middle. Sometimes he would get to the safety meeting early and stop by my desk to talk about his family, grandchildren, motorcycles and he would ask me about my kids and grandchildren. Glenn was a good friend, great employee always with a smile on his face. Glenn will be missed.

“ When I was 5 years old, standing @ the end of our driveway on HWY 78 in 1960, the big door began to open and I slowly began climbing the stair's and there he sat, in the front seat, behind the driver of the bus, talking and laughing, as I reached the top of the landing. He spoke to me "pretty little girl or ? comforting words" and said front seat was for me and I would ride beside him each day and I did. I could not wait to get on the bus and start the day. Sometimes he drove the bus and that was wow! He was always animated and happy on the bus. He would have me sing and entertain the students with "puff the magic dragon", such great happy memories. Then to be his sister in law. Very blessed. A visit to Ivey and Glenn's was always a good time. Talking and laughing and drinking coffee for hours! They always made u feel welcome and opened their hearts and home, always. Through the many years, just celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary, they opened their home to many and fed the elderly, saved countless squirrels and creatures and habitats! Ivey and Glenn shared a special bond and what a partnership they, and he in his career @ National Gypsum to trails and forests protected and preserved for future trail riders. The list continues. A great purpose filled life. There will be a deep void in many lives, with his passing. Brenda Lee Rice
