“ Dear Mike and Terry/ I very much remember growing up on Lester St. with ya'll and being in Elementary school with Vic. Your Mom and my Mom ( Jerry Harmon Sparks) and my Dad ( Wayne Sparks ) were good friends. I'm so sorry for your loss. I remember her as very kind and beautiful lady. I'll be thinking and praying for ya'll in the coming days.

I worked in accounting at Belk & thought I'd share a story that I think of every time I think of Gloria or the men's buyer (Buck Nelson) at the time & one of their buying trips. I understand those were fast paced & tiring jobs. They were exhausted & ready to come home. The car was hot from sitting in the sun so they put the windows down & put their luggage & paper work in the trunk & take off. Shortly after, a wasp got in the car & before they could get it out, one of them got bit. They stop & start out again & was talking about the place they would to stop for lunch & get pulled over for speeding. In the Carolinas back then, you paid the ticket on the spot. They pooled their money to pay the ticket, praying then that they had enough left for a fast food burger rather than their favorite eating joint. Remembering that the company gas credit card would not be good in GA, they started looking for a station that would accept that card. They saw one & left the highway with a station on each side of the road. Buck zipped into one & filled up then realizing they were at the wrong one. Luck finally went their way as they were not the only ones to ever do this, & back then charges were done in a little machine not at the pump. The owner went across the street with them & the other station ran the card through his system & paid for the gas they got across the street. I've always wondered how Vic would spend this tale if he ever got wind of it.
