“ Even at the age of 103, when a mother and grandmother are gone it still hurts. We thank the Lord for all the memories she helped create for the family over the years and pray that His comfort will bring peace to all the extended family members.

“ What a beautiful lady Mrs. Gracie was. The longest living member of the Oxford Church of Christ. Her beauty, kindness and sweetness is what I will always remember ever since I was a little girl. She has left such a legacy through her family, her grandchildren, whom i grew up with and always love, and now great-grand children and great-great- grandchildren. Prayers, love and hugs to all of you through these days. Missy Haynes Hall
