“ I always looked forward to the Sellers reunion in Lineville, AL. Mainly, because Guy would come and he would always make a point to go to Granny (Ethel) and Grandad (Kenneth) Snow's house looking for us Snow-White girls so he could take us for ice cream! We couldn't have been more than 11-12 yrs old. About 4-5 months ago those memories came flooding back to me. I hadn't seen Guy since Hazel's funeral but had heard he lived in Anniston-Oxford area. Lucky for me I searched online and found Gary. He gave me a number I could call for Guy. After many attempts I was finally able to speak to Guy on the phone. I like to believe him remembered me. Guy always had a great sense of humor and he was always so kind. We ended our conversation with him asking me how old I was now. I told him 58 and he giggled and said you're almost as old as me! I tried to go see him when I was in the area at the first of June but due to the world's current events I was not allowed to visit. I made a point to tell him on the phone that I will always cherish his kindness and the fond memories of him taking us for ice cream. I hope I grow up to be as kind as he was.

I will miss him greatly,
