

Harold Bridges

March 22, 1944 - June 19, 2016

Harold Bridges 72 of DeArmanville went to be with Jesus, June 19, 2016. He lost his battle with Pneumonia, COPD, Enphysema and Congestive Heart Failure.

He is survived by his best friend and love of his life, wife of 47 years, Kathy Sons Bridges.

Son, Keith Bridges and grandson, Christian of Douglasville, GA.

Mother, Glayds Bridges of Oxford.

Sisters; Debra Austin of DeArmanville, Faye Williams of Talladega, Janice Estes of Anniston, Mattie Bailey of Oxford and Wanda Bridges of Oxford.

Brother, Ricky Bridges of Oxford.

Mr. Bridges was preceded in death by his father, Lois Bridges of Talladega.

Sister, Era Elders of Oxford and a Brother, Russell Bridges of Talladega.

Harold was a retired dump truck driver for Apac Oxford with 30 years of service.

He was a homebody with a passion for working in his yard, gardening, planting trees and flowers. He was a dedicated Nascar Fan,

Favorite drivers, Dale Earnhart Sr , Dale Earnhart Jr. and was a big Alabama

Crimson Tide Fan. He treasured his time at home with his wife and their dog, Gabbie. Harold was a good and well respected man devoted to his family and his friends.

Per Harold's request there will be no funeral or services.

Family and friends are welcome to visit at their home in DeArmanville.

In lieu of flowers the family wish donations to go to Children's Hospital in honor of Harold's name.

The family would like to say a "special" thanks to the RMC ER, 9th floor, Critical Care Floor for their dedication and kindness. God Bless You All.

Miller Funeral Home