Howard never met a stranger and loved everyone. On any given day, you could catch him cracking jokes and cutting up to make others laugh. He loved his family with all his heart and devoted himself to them. He was the proudest husband, father, and Pawpaw that ever existed. His grandchildren, Hudson and Sadie, were his whole world and he was beyond excited for the anticipated arrival of his third grandchild in November. Howard was always looking for ways to help others. He lived a life full of wonderful memories and taught us all so much. He spoke often of his love of Jesus and the amazing reunion he would have waiting for him in Heaven some day. We will miss him but he would want us all to rejoice at his going home.
