“ Met Slab in the mid 70s hung with him every day for 2 years he would give to family and friends before doing for his self. He could be the best friend or the worst enemy that was your choice. As time past on we grew apart but what few times I did see him it was always he would say come and see me we need to talk over old times. The Blakemore Family, City of Oxford and friends have lost one of a kind. RIP my friend you leave me with many great memories.
