He is loved dearly by the Tyree, Gardner and Chitwood families He will be missed for the joy and laughter he brought into our lives. He was always there if you needed hmand sometimes there when you didn't think you needed him, (but you did) He was caring and loving brother-in-law, uncle, and son-in-law. We love him and he will remain in our heart always I

Jerrie was a good friend and a Godly man. He serviced my office when I was an agent with Prudential Insurance Co. and I was also acquainted with his brothers Dewayne and Kenneth. We always had lots of fun joking about our favorite SEC football teams. I have always been an Alabama fan, and he of course was an Auburn fan. When I married my late wife forty-three years ago, he proclaimed that there was hope for me, since she was also an Auburn fan. He was always kind and funny, and an outspoken Christian. There was never any doubt as to where his faith rested. Rest in peace with our Lord, Jerrie. Until we meet again. Steve
