“ My family and I went to church with Jerry and Betty at two different churches for nearly 20 years. They were both great people and solid Christians who absolutely loved JESUS! I served with Jerry as a deacon for a while and it was my pleasure. We got to be close friends and I would very frequently ask he and/or Betty for advice on a variety of things. He love the LORD, he loved people and he had a servant's heart....just like his wife Betty. You can BET Betty was sitting there waiting for him and already has him busy! Not good bye Jerry! but see you later.....GOD bless the family with peace and comfort!
