“ My brother was a wonderful example of a " Southern Gentleman". He still stood when a lady entered the room, took his hat off inside, opened doors for ladies and would take our arm in his to walk us across a street. Jerry was gifted with a strong servant's heart. Many of us received the generosity of Jerry's gift of service through the years. If he saw a need or sometimes just a want, he provided. I will miss among other things his humor and fun. Jerry loved Jesus and would share the good news with his doctors and nurses. He remembered the sermon of the prodigal son that he heard as a young teen when he walked the aisle to ask Jesus into his heart. He told us how cold the water was at the Eastaboga Fish Hatchery where he was baptized. I'm thankful for a brother that led the way into Glory by his spiritual walk here on earth.
