Tribute Wall

“ Jerry and I became friends in our early teens, when he started coming to church. We rode bicycles together all over. After moving back to this area about 10 years ago, we have been able to spend time together a couple of times each week.

Jerry has always had the Father God's Heart. He had a strong gift of Mercy from Jesus. His desire was to be pleasing to our Lord. Knowing he was going to heaven was a great comfort to him, especially over the past several years experiencing worsening health problems. He was never a man who complained. I always had to ask him how he was doing, and what his doctors were saying. It is comforting to know that he is in Heaven with Jesus, dancing on the streets of gold! I am looking forward to seeing him there again one day!
