

Mrs. Jewell M. Dever

August 3, 1941 - January 2, 2024

Mrs. Jewell Dever, 82, of Anniston died on Tuesday January 2 after a brief illness. Mrs. Dever was the daughter of Han and Bell Henson. She was born and lived most of her life in Calhoun County, Alabama.

Mrs. Dever was retired, having had a long career in elder care. She was predeceased by her husband, George M. Dever and her sons, Joe Dever and Jimmy Pate as well as her parents and several beloved siblings.

She was a family matriarch and leaves behind many cherished relatives. Mrs. Dever elected not to have a funeral service, but left us with the desire that her family and friends share stories about things that made them laugh

“ It’s taken me a minute - it’s hard to put into words how I’ve come to love you as my own since I’ve joined the family. You liked my hugs and you always said I smell good. I admired how strong you’ve had to be the last three years as you lost your boys and a dear friend one right after the other. I like that you didn’t lose your faith - a lesser person would have. I’m glad to know in my heart that you are in a bright, shiny place and your boys are once again with you. Keep me a spot - I’ll bring the hugs! Love you so much. Rest now.

“ When I came into the family, you became my “Aunt” and I became your “Nephew”. I always enjoyed our times by the pool on holidays. You never seemed to be having a bad day and always up for a conversation. Until we can have a nip together again one day, your smile and personality will be greatly missed by myself and others. Thank you for being a friend of mine and loving Brooks like he was your own grandson.

Nathan, thank you! She did laugh so much about that “nip” story. I think I’ve heard it a hundred times and it just tickled her so.

“ Dearest Aunt Jewell words can't express how much I will miss you. I know you're in a happy place now with family and friends who have also loved and missed you. I really hope that the chicken and dressing is good there and there's plenty of diet Mt. Dew.

“ Thank you for letting the kids ruin your newspaper every time we visited, for always being willing to share a Fast Break, and adding so splendidly to their fancy sock collections. You will be dearly missed, but we will cherish the time we were given. We love you!

Courtney, Rodney, and Saylor Brown - January 03, 2024 at 07:40 PM

“ I love you Aunt Jewell. You were one of the sweetest people I've ever known, stubborn as a mule but very sweet none the less. I wish we could have had more time together but I will always remember the time we did!
