

Jewell Dean Williams

February 26, 1930 - January 21, 2022

A funeral service for Jewell Dean Williams, age 91 of Eastaboga, will be held on January 27, 2022 at 2 pm at Miller Funeral Home in the Toby Miller Chapel. Officiating the service will be Pastor Rick Luallen. Family will receive friends on the same day from 12:30 pm to 2:00 pm.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Perry, and Emma Reeder, husband Renay Williams, infant son David Ray Williams, sisters Jeanell White and Betty Acker.

She is survived by her son, Ronald "Bubba" (Margie) Williams, daughter, Janice Williams Maddox, five grandchildren, Mike Williams, Kim Elkins (Dewey), Brandon Edwards (Lynn), Shasta Platt (Steven), and Tiffany Maddox (Brandon), 10 great grandchildren-Cole Williams, Caleb Williams, Jacob Denney, Triston "Blake" Denney, Fayla Denney, Grant Edwards, Jessica Nabors, Jordyn Platt, Reggie Williams, Jaiden Edmondson, and Wesley Elkins, 10 great-great grandchildren, sister Annette Yates Jackson, brothers Harold Reeder, Perry Reeder Jr. (Junior), Russell Reeder, and several nieces and nephews.

She was a Mawmaw to everyone, no matter of relation. She was most proud of her children and all of her grandchildren and loved them with all her heart. She was kind to everyone she met and always put others before herself. She loved Jesus and often shared her faith with others. Her mother and father named her Jewell because that was what she truly was, just as the Bible describes in Proverbs 31:10, "She is worth far more than rubies."

Pallbearers will be Caleb Williams, Sidney "Nonnie" Wayne Stephens, Triston "Blake" Denney, Reggie Williams, Steven Platt, and Brandon Edwards.

Family would like to ask for friends and extended family to bring a mask for the reasons of Covid- 19. The family will be accepting flowers and donations towards any favorite charity. Her request was to buy something for your children or grandchildren for her.
