“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Freeman family and BaeBae's friends. My heart breaks for his parents. I'm so sorry I wish there was something we could say or do so that you wouldn't have to feel this pain of losing yet another child. May God be with you in the days to come and may he help to ease the pain and help you find peace. BaeBae, I see your face and that whole that smile that was so real and so contagious when I think of the last time I seen you. It's so unreal to me. I've known you for many years and you've always been a big brother to me. I thank God now that he brought you back into my life so that we were able to know each other a little different or maybe I should say just a little more grown. You will be missed BaeBae! And as someone said already. You may now rest! And may we all thank God for blessing us with your love and laughter. Love you BaeBae!!

“ Life will never be the same without you here. Bea you were my best friend. Everybody loved you and I was proud we were as close as we were. We had so much fun. We got each other thru a rough patch in life. I'm beyond grateful I had this time with you. You have a beautiful heart. It carried way more pain then anyone could imagine or should have. I saw someone use the word Restless. That made sense to me and describes you perfectly. You can Rest in peace now Bae. Know you were loved by many and will be missed forever. You took a piece of my heart with you that day. I'll always have our memories and cherish them. I love you so much Bea! You were so good to me. Thank you for always being there! Until we met again my precious friend. 💙

“ What times we had. What memories we shared. What friends we were. What kinship we built. What hardships, troubles, joys, trips of happiness, fields of dreams, moments of hope, times of despair... did we both share. The only thing left now, is me, tears and those memories that I will take to my last day here. I remember the day we met, two young teens stammering through this journey called life. Baron you were restless here, but now May you rest.... ❤️
