

Mr. Jimmy M. Pierce

June 27, 1947 - December 19, 2024

Jimmy M. Pierce, died on December 19, 2024. He passed away peacefully in his sleep at Diversicare Nursing Home in Oxford, Alabama. Jimmy or as he is known to friends and family, Jim, served 6 years in the US Navy aboard the now decommissioned, USS Barney as a radar repair tech. He was an avid amateur radio enthusiast as well and volunteered with the races held on Mount Cheheea every year. What he is best known for among family, friends and fans of science fiction and fantasy is his poetry and ability to DM Dungeons and Dragons. He introduced the game to his sisters in 1979 and has been their Forever DM until his death. He contributed to the world of maps through online maps he created. He also loved Drive-In theatres and had several websites that show his work.

He is preceded in death by his mother Bonnie Anne Huckabee and his father Richard C. Pierce and his infant brother. He is survived by his sisters: Bonita A. Pierce (Robert) with his nieces and nephews, Brittany, Piper, James, Jonathan and Marcus Moreau and a sister, Lou Anna Pierce (Sebastien) with his nephews and grandnieces: Joshua (Amy) Roberie, Sophie and Gracie, Gabriel Roberie, Christian Graham (Jamie), August, Mathieu (Gabrielle), Lexie, Aaron Claveau, Joel Gutierrez, Evie Gutierrez, Eli Lundenberg, Ethan Claveau.

His stories live on as does his fearsome reputation among gamers and convention goes alike. His maps are archived and maintained by his sisters and friends abroad. Time to rest now, sir. We will continue to roll our dice as yours have now been silenced. We have rolled a critical fail and mourn your loss. RUTABAGA STEW!
