“ Please accept our sincere condolences for your loss, Martha and family! I had the delight of working with Jo at the Career Tech Center. What a smart, talented, and fun lady she was. She helped so many teenaged girls not just learn skills for childcare, but she also gave them counseling and confidence for their lives ahead. Jo was the life of the CTC faculty and was loved by all! The world was a better place because of her.

“ I am so sorry for each of you! I enjoyed every visit with her! She was so special to me and I truly loved her dearly! She would proudly tell of how much she loved each of you and was so very proud of her grandchild! She will surely be deeply missed by me! My prayers are with each one of you and may God give each of you the comfort and peace only He can provide!

“ Mrs Paschal not only was my favorite teacher but my special friend. She helped me get through my teenage years. I could not have made it if she had not been there for me. Her family are in my prayers.

“ Martha your mom has always been a great person. I had her for homemaker and I got the Homemaker of the year in 1968 awards day. I teased and told her it was just because I was married already. We had a good laugh. Always kind and patient with me because she knew I'd rather be cutting grass than making biscuits. Prayers for you all.
