

John M. Hanvey Jr.

December 4, 1949 - November 26, 2013

Funeral services for Mr. John M. Hanvey Jr, 63 of Oxford, will be on Saturday, November 30, 2013 at 10:30 am in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home and Crematory with Rev. Ronnie Garrett officiating. Visitation will be Friday, November 29, 2013 from 6-8 pm. Mr. Hanvey passed on November 26 at his residence surrounded by family. Mr. Hanvey is survived by his daughters, Kim Gay(Chris), Robin Adams(Randy), and Ginger Herren(Jackie), grandchildren, Carley Herren, Cole Herren, and Blaise Adams, siblings, Sarah Kelley(Doug) and Jeff Hanvey(Cheryl), and several nieces, nephews and very loyal cyclist friends. He is preceded in death by his parents, John M. Hanvey Sr. and Annie Elizabeth Brooks. Pallbearers will be family and friends with his cycling friends as honorary pallbearers. Mr. Hanvey was a retiree from Lee Brass where he worked for 45 years in the Quality Department. He really enjoyed boating and water skiing. He was an avid cyclist for over 30 years and completed the Cheaha Challenge 19 times. During his cycling career, he helped raised money for Multiple Sclerosis over the years. He was a very humble, simple man who mastered anything he set his mind too. He had great integrity, a great work ethic and would help anyone in need. His greatest accomplishment in life was that he was a single father who raised three daughters. He was a very loving father, Christian, brother, grandfather and friend and was a blessing to anyone who knew him. Flowers will be accepted but donations may be made to the Lou Gehrig's(ALS) Association. A special thanks to Dr. V. Reddy, Dr. Terry Phillis, New Beacon Hospice ,very special caregiver Phyllis Rittenhouse and to all who helped take care of our dad.
