“Johnny was one the best friends anybody could ask for. I will miss the times of me and him setting in the living room talking about how close we are to the coming of the Lord. Johnny was true to the core, and I am going to miss the times when me and johnny and Sharon would go eat together. but I know all will be together soon again just as we have talked about many times and song about Jesus return is very near.

“ Eli is our grandson and he is also Johnny and Sharons. We will miss seeing and visiting with Johnny at family events. But, I know that Eli loves him so much and his heart is broke. He will miss him for the rest of his life. Johnny not only loved Eli, he taught him to love Jesus, to be honorable and to love and obey his parents.
