“ Jody was the love of my life, we were together two years. We enjoyed going places together, watching movies and going out to eat. Jody loved to eat my cooking. We went to his Linda's on Sundays to eat lunch and let our dog Buddy play with her dogs Fluffy and Trouble. I'm so glad that God put us together and I'm going to miss everyday for the rest of my life. Rest In Peace sweetheart, I love you. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Today my daughter asked, “will we still have deviled eggs at Thanksgiving now that Uncle Jody has passed away? I told her we will never stop having them. Jody loved those deviled eggs but what I believe he loved more was the fun he had competing with my son and daughter to see who could eat the most. I know this may seem like a silly thing but it's a memory that has always made me laugh.
