“ So many fond memories. She was my English Teacher in Junior High School, but more importantly she was my Sunday School Teacher at Good Hope Baptist Church in Delta, Alabama. A very gracious Lady in every respect.

“ Mrs. Rice was always so nice to me and supported me as a librarian. We ran into her at the University of Alabama's graduation in 1997. We all laughed about seeing each other in that huge crowd of people. I know you will miss her. Cathy Johnson Cospers

“ Hey Boys! My heart aches all the way to Texas! She always treated me like I was one of hers, and I felt that way also. I will be with you in spirit during that service, although unable to be there. My prayers are for strength and courage during this time for you and your family. I will cherish childhood memories, no, lifelong memories of our friendship and my relationship with your Mother. “ Bruce & Dwight, I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother. She was my mentor in high school. I took a liking to the library when everyone else thought it was nerdy. lol I learned so much from this fine lady while at OHS. I kept in contact with her for years after graduation and every time I saw her she knew immediately who I was and we always tried to keep up with each other. Loosing a parent is extremely hard as I have recently lost both of mine. My prayers are with you thru this trying time. Jeanie HAWKINS Childs
