

Kanicia Anjira King

April 9, 1990 - March 15, 2019

Precious memories, how they linger as we muse over the life of Kanicia Anjira King. On April 9, 1990, a beautiful six pounds bundle of miraculous joy was delivered into this world. The proud parents, Mr. Johnny Brown King, Sr. and Mrs. Dorothy L. King, welcomed her with the intentions of spoiling her rotten! Kanicia (aka Jira) was the sunlight in any dark moment. Even though she was the baby of the family, her two older brothers, Charles King and Johnny King knew she was “The Boss!”

Jira lived a very energetic, productive and prosperous life. She was employed as the General Sales Manager at University Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram. She also worked briefly as General Sales Manager with Sunny King Ford. Jira’s short life encompassed many outstanding accomplishments. She graduated from Montevallo High School in 2008, where she played basketball and ran track. She was one of the saxophonist for the Montevallo Marching Troubadours, and also Co-Captain of the Color Guards. Jira received numerous awards for her participation in school and in the community.

Jira was not only a treasured gift to her family, she also touched many lives with her very generous spirit. She made friends easily. She was loyal in her relationships. She was committed to helping anyone she could. Her heart’s desire was to empower people to discover their full potential and rise to their greatest level.

Jira has so many loved ones left to cherish her memory. A sweet adorable wife, Amanda C. King, Makayla Hunter (God daughter), Tyseon and Camreon

Smith (God Sons). Mother, Dorothy L. King. Brothers Charles (Jeana) King, Johnny King (Michelle), Sister Jennifer Johnson. God brother and Sister Curtis and Lodealia Taylor. Uncles: William (Brenda) King, Paul (Beverly) King, Ben King, Clifford King, Raymond (Brenda) King. Aunts: Pauline Jones, Hazel Williams, Alberta Jones, Diane King, and Lynn Davis. Nephews: Jontae King, Gabriel King, Coleman King, Mason King, William Sanders, Emanuel Hall, Mitchell Johnson, Joseph Green. Nieces: Elisabeth King, Keelie Yowe, Marchelle Lacey and Layla Green. A host of cousins and friends.

Jira was born in Jefferson County and raised in Montevallo, Alabama. As an adult she made her home in Weaver, Alabama. Jira departed this life on Friday, March 15, 2019. She was a member of Word Alive International Outreach. Located 122 Allendale Rd, Oxford, AL. Her Pastors were Kent and Bev Mattox.

The celebration of Jira's life will be Saturday, March 23, 2019 from 1pm-3pm at Miller Funeral Home chapel located at 50 Hamric Drive E, Oxford, AL 36203. 1pm-2pm visitation and fellowship. 2pm-3pm tribute service. “ Mrs. Dorothy I love you!!!! and to Amanda and the rest of the family I want to offer my deepest condolences. Jira was my first best friend we did everything together : Sleepovers, Played Saxophone in band, Color Guard, Talked on the Radio together, Praise Danced at church together. Whenever she crunk up to go somewhere I was most likely on the passenger side. After high school we kinda drifted apart but whenever we seen each other it was just like the good old days I am so thankful that I got the chance to have known Jira and even more thankful I got the chance to call her my friend. She never judged me and always encouraged me to see the good in situations and I will forever cherish these memories.

“ The first time I met Jira, we instantly connected. She worked st Riverchase Kia with my husband. She would talk about what was going on in her life. She invited me and my husband to a family birthday celebration and from then on, we were family. When I met Amanda, I told Jira she had someone special who really cared for her and to treat her right. They had obvious love for each other and to talk to them individually you could most definitely tell that. I am going to miss her infectious laughter, her old age wisdom and her beautiful personality. Thank God for loaning her to us to affect our lives. Sweet heavenly rest my sister! We got Amanda!

“ Many prayers are going up for the King family. May you each feel wrapped in the energy of love that is pouring out to you.... Now, and in the difficult days ahead. May you also find peace and comfort in knowing that you WILL be reunited with Jira one day. Until that time, she is just around the corner.
Love and light... From my family to yours. ❤️

“ My son was really good friends with Jabbo Callahan. Jira lived with Jabbo and his family for a while. My son was 11-13 years of age. Jira always treated him like her own. I was a single mother and my son and I had our differences. I would pick him up sometimes and Jira would always tell him “ you better be good to your mama boy” she was so kind and she had a genuine love and kindness about her that is rare. I pray for comfort and peace for her wife, family and all that loved her so much. I know she will be missed more than we can ever imagine.

“ Jira and I played basketball against each other in high school, and from there we ended up crossing paths again working together at Riverchase Kia in 2015. She used to always joke with me about church stuff. She was very good at listening and just being real at all times no matter what. I will never forget her smile and the laughter she brought to the room, even when I didn't feel like laughing. Her and the King family also performed their family plays at my church and we enjoyed them both times they have come. Jira was really special in that she never ever met a stranger and no matter how mad should would make one, you just couldn't fix it in your heart to stay mad with her. This is all still unreal to me but I know with Gods help we all will get through this time of loss. Just want the King Family to know that I love them and am here in anyway they may need me!
