“ From the day she was born Katee was a beauty who was easy to love. When she was 2 and started daycare they nicked named her precious moments because she was always saying the cutest things.

She was smart and enjoyed school. She was born with her passion for horses and animals and her original dream was always to be a veterinarian.

She had the sweetest heart and was always thinking of others.

She loved beauty and the beast and when she was 3 and people would ask her what her name was, she would say “ I’m beauty” and that point at me and say “ and that’s the beast” 😂

Well, SOMEBODY had to be the beast plus beauty loved the beast

Katee will forever be missed by so many but my heart will always be missing a big part of it with her gone. I love you forever and ever sweet beauty! Love mom 🌹❤️🌹❤️
