“ I can't believe that Kathy passed away and I didn't know it until today when my Ixford Access magazine came in the mail today. Was ready the article by Phil Bain on the trips he and fellow friends made to watch football games each year and at the end of article where mentioned that Kathy had passed away. She and I graduated same year and I worked at Bynum school when she was teaching there too. She was a very special lady and I ve known the Bentley family all my life. Used to live next door to her brother Jack and Elaine when our kids were young. I'll see her again one day when we all get to heaven. My condolences to the whole family. Love Cindy Cooper Haynes McCarley❤️

“ Kathy was my first cousin and although we lived across the country we spoke nearly every College football season the last 20+ years. This came as a complete shock to me this evening. I will pass this sad information to the rest of her Foley cousins. My love and sympathies to all of the Halls and Bentleys.

“Kathy was a good friend while we attended OHS together. I tried out for Cheerleader a couple of times. She was always willing to help me out to learn the cheers for tryouts. We continued to be friends after we graduated in the year 1974. We shared our love for Jesus and the relationship we had with Him. Ever time she saw me she was warm, friendly and happy to see me. I will truly miss our friendship we had here on earth but, looking forward to see her in Heaven!

“I’ve known Kathy since I was a new 6th grade student at Oxford. While some teased this new girl, Kathy responded to me with kindness and a welcome. We spent many summers at the pool, ate in her Mom’s kitchen, and I even tried softball at her insistence. I was not good but she cheered me on. She cheered for everyone all her life because that’s Kathy. She was a true lady and a virtuous woman. God bless and comfort her family.

“ I loved to hear the story about Kathy and Margie at Auburn with an upset win in the Iron Bowl. They jumped the bushes and ran onto the field with thousands of excited fans. Kathy encouraged Margie to do it because they may never get another chance! She lost her phone but that didn't matter. She was always so full of enthusiasm in whatever she did. A special lady.
