“ Rest in peace my friend. We made alot of memories at BAE and Pine Hill golf course. A good man gone too soon. Condolences for the family from Fred and Julie Crenshaw.

“ A really. really decent good man, quiet disposition, fine neighbor, good friend I was honored to have the fortune to know and share life with. Friday prior to his departing we had a good 'man's day' visit together that morning about what he wanted to be doing soon, with his wife Rhonda, in his retirement. Oh, that he could have had a few months more to address those desires. God has a plan; we know and are yet to understand. God has an exceptionally good servant up there in Ken.

He was one of the Lord's best men on earth. I have met only a few men that were as naturally kind and giving as sweet KEN. I'm so glad Fred and he got to spend a wonderful day together on Friday going to see the dams and Flat Rock. It's hard to believe it was next to his last day.
