“ Love you dad. I remember one time, when I was young and you and I would be on the phone and our song was who "let the dogs out ". We would sing that over the phone when I was 4, very fond memory I have of you. Those moments that I had with you were very sentimental. I still have that two dollar bill you gave me when I was a toddler.

“ Kim, I’m sorry you’re experiencing such a huge loss. I didn’t know him well, but I could tell that he treated you and the boys the way he should. And I know you guys had a one of a kind type of love. I heard nothing but good things about him. I pray that you find some comfort in knowing how deeply you were loved and that someday you’ll see him again. Until then, watch for signs from him, because he will be with you in spirit always and he will let you know he’s still here. Please remember that you can reach out to me if you ever need a shoulder. ❤️
