“ I'll never forget the look on Larry's face when I, (about 16 at the time), stopped him on his dozer as he was working for my daddy and asked for a cigarette! I don't think he quite knew WHAT to do, what with Daddy standing near by. When I told him it was for a bee sting I'd gotten he looked at Daddy and said: "That right, Mr. Ed?" He had so much respect for my parents, my dad especially, that he'd never have done anything to cause disapproval. Not with all the 'eye lash batting' in the world!! Or the time that he and Daddy, when clearing some swampy area below the house, unearthed 'a bunch' of spreading adder snakes! Daddy used to say that he truly thought that Buck (as he called him) was going to be the second to walk on water; or air, aka Wylie E Coyote!

Larry was one of the most generous, caring people it's been my pleasure to know and I will always consider my life the richer for having done so. My heartfelt condolences to Rhonda and his family. Oh, and Larry....give Daddy a hug and a pat on the back from me! And say hello to Mr. Guy who taught my first husband that "wood is burned; lumber is toted!"

“ I will really miss him! I learned so much from Larry about life. He was more than my father in law. Larry was more of a daddy. I am proud to have spent half of my life around him. He loved his family!
