I have known Larry Jr. since he was born. I remember our families traveling to Immockalee, Fl. for our Dads to work on building Alligator Alley; the pipeline through the Everglades. My brother Benny & I thought Larry Jr. was our baby, always so sweet, always laughing with that big smile. Our hearts go out to Diddie & the rest of his family. He was loved. He will never be forgotten. Wish I could be there, but my Dr. says no. I am 1 week post knee replacement. I know Larry was praying for me as I was for him. Enjoy Heaven, Larry Jr.; you deserve it. ❤️❤️ ❤️🙏🙏🙏 Diddie, please give Larry Sr. & Teresa our love.

“ Several of us got together and ate at the top of the river, while eating Larry asked what size boot I wore I told him. He said he had bought the boots he had on and they didnt fit him right, after we ate Patty and went out and got on the motorcycle to leave when Larry and Diddie pulled up beside us and Larry handed the boots out the window and gave them to me and drove home barefooted. That's what kind of person Larry was. I bet you already got you a nice harley in heaven brother
