“ Laura was so good to me. My very best memories from childhood were spent with the Dabbs family. In the garden, shelling beans, walking out to the old bridge, playing games. She had a wonderful imagination, perfect for a little girl. Even doing the dishes was fun with her, Betty Ann and Elaine. I knew she loved me and I love her. I was one of them, more than sharing great grand parents on the Grogan side. Now we share cousins on the Dabbs/Wade side. I still hear her voice when I think of her and I remember her beautiful smile. It was wonderful when Laura and Glenn came to see me. Making that long drive wasn't easy but it meant so much to me. The picture you chose is perfect. Always so beautiful and kind. My love to Glenn, the girls, all the family.
