

Lenora Marie Calloway

May 23, 1955 - May 2, 2026

Lenora Marie Calloway, 70 of Anniston, has entered her eternal sleep. She was surrounded by her loved ones and passed peacefully.

Lenora is survived by her devoted partner, Danny Baldwin, who remained by her side throughout her life's journey. She also leaves behind her daughters, Samantha Harmon (Christopher) and Jennifer Bennett (Calvin). Lenora's blended family includes her stepdaughter, Jennifer Bush (Kenneth). Her siblings, Lynda Eyre (Brian) and Joey LeNard, mourn her loss and celebrate her memory.

Lenora's legacy continues through her grandchildren: Tabitha Harmon, Jacob Harmon, Dylan Bush, Nicholas Robinson (Shelby), Joshua Robinson (Tori), Alex Baldwin, and Emily Robinson. In addition to her immediate family, Lenora is fondly remembered by a host of extended relatives and many cherished friends whose lives she touched with her kindness and warmth.

She is preceded by her parents, Leonard and Margaret LeNard; brother, Buddy LeNard.

Lenora was known for her kindness, warmth, and lively spirit. She constantly wore a smile, uplifting those around her wherever she went. During her life, she cherished adventures with Danny, her best friend and partner in crime.

She served briefly in the United States Army, contributing to her country. Following her military service, she was employed at General Dynamics, located at the Anniston Army Depot, until her retirement.

She will forever be cherished for her warmth and wit, which she shared generously with all.

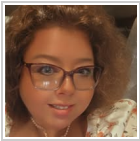

Tribute Wall

DH

“ Don Howell lit a candle in memory of Lenora Marie Calloway

Don Howell - May 06 at 03:31 PM

“ She was a light and a very kind person. She loved her family and grandkids so much. Danny was always by her side. My heart goes out to him and his family. I am grateful to have known her and her family. May God bless them and give them comfort in this time of grieving. God bless you all.

Angela Hayse - May 05 at 03:59 PM