“ I would like to offer you all my condolences on the passing of Leona. I know this is a difficult time for you. I would like to offer you encouragement and the best way that I can do that, would be to leave you all a scripture from God’s word the Bible. A scripture I hold dear when dealing with the loss of loved ones is Revelation chapter 21 verse 3 and 4. There it reads, “3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” So here with God’s promise, we can look forward to a future with no death, or mourning. God will be with us, and we can live with Leona without fear of losing her again. Again, please accept my sincere condolences.
