“ Leonie was an amazing woman! Loved her family, children, grandchildren, husband and life in general. She was always working outside, whether it was mowing the grass or digging in the dirt. Leonie was always smiling, laughing and trying to make sure everyone was taken care of, whether she knew you or not. She had a wonderful work ethic and would work circles around most humans. Leonie fought to the very second of her life, but I know the angels rejoiced when they welcomed her into her eternal home. God bless Kevin, the Thomas children and grandchildren. Today we grieve for Leonie and only time will help heal the hole that is in each of our hearts. However, God with His love and grace will see each of us through as only He can do. Prayers to those who are grieving.
