

Lillian Pugh Williams

October 9, 1923 - December 15, 2012

Funeral services for Lillian Pugh Williams, 89, will be held at 10:00 a.m. Thursday, December 20 at Oxford First United Methodist Church with interment at Oxford Memorial Gardens. Miller Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Williams passed away Saturday, December 15 at Hanceville Nursing Home in Hanceville, Ala. where she had been living for the past two years. A resident of Calhoun County for most of her life, Mrs. Williams was born in Anniston on October 9, 1923, to Gertrude and Raymond Pugh. After graduating from Oxford High School, she married her sweetheart, Clyde Williams, and they were married nearly 57 years upon his death in 2000. Steadfast in their Christian faith, Mr. and Mrs. Williams were long-standing members of Oxford First United Methodist Church. Mrs. Williams spent a majority of her professional career at Oxford High School as the secretary and bookkeeper and retired after 35 years of service. She was a dedicated wife, mother and grandmother with a generous heart who enjoyed entertaining and hosting family gatherings for many years at her home. Lillian was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Clyde Cecil Williams, Jr.; and three brothers, Don Pugh, Jack Pugh and Herman Pugh. Survivors include three daughters, Annette (Taylor) Archer of St. Cloud, Fla., Susan (Jerry) Waters of Cullman, Ala. and Cindy (Reid) Colgrove of Boligee, Ala.; an one son, Greg (Dianne) Williams of Monticello, Ga. Mrs. Williams was also the proud grandmother of 11 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Miller Funeral Home in Oxford.
