“ Linda was my high school friend and we attended the same church. I loved her like a sister. I am heart broken. But I know where she is. I'll get to see her again. Judy StephensFerguson

“ I met Linda around November 2013. She was a super special person and there was a bond between us. Our birthdays were one day apart. A friend of my was in the Corvette Club with her husband. For several months we would meet on a Friday night at a restaurant. After July 2014 I didn't see her on a regular basis but we kept in touch via text. She was a true friend and I am going to miss her.

“ I first heard of Linda many years ago when I worked for Wal-Mart in Enterprise. I worked with her daughter Shelly and Shelly always spoke so sweetly of her Momma up in Anniston. Several years later we moved from California to Anniston and low and behold I ended up working with Ms. Linda herself for the next 18 years! She was easy to love and so darn funny. And we learned we knew so many of the same people! She became my second mom as she did all the girls in our office. She was who we would first run to to laugh with, to cry with and for her to get on to someone for us when we needed protecting! She gave the best hugs and the best advice. And always smelled so nice with her signature sent Jerry would get her! She will forever be missed. I LOVE YOU MORE Momma... 🙏💔

I only had the pleasure to meet Linda one time, but we had so much in common and some of the same things we both overcome. She came with her wonderful loving husband Jerry when he come by to check my air-condition. I could see the love between them in that short visit. It reminded me of my dear husband Gary and myself, glowing true love ❤️. Jerry, you and your family are in my prayers 🙏. God will bless you with the strength to carry on with all your beautiful special memories of your loving, sweet and beautiful wife. May God wrap His loving arms around you and comfort you in the sad days ahead.

“ We’ve known Jerry a lot longer than we have Linda but I can truthfully say she was one of the nicest and kindest ladies I’ve ever been around, no matter where you were if you run up on her somewhere she would always speak.....never an unkind word about anybody. R.I.P. Linda, you and Jesus are going to get along just fine. Jerry we are so sorry, we know how much you loved this beautiful lady and her beautiful smile, sending prayers and hugs to you and all of your family! 🙏 ☐
