“ Mimi had a gift for cooking and especially baking! One year during Christmas time I went and spent the entire day with Mimi baking. She taught me how to make her famous fudge, divinity and coconut cake that day! It was a special gift that I was able to also share with my side of the family at Christmas that year.

This past Christmas 2019, I was blessed to spend the day with her once again. Thanks to her great teaching and her instruction, Brooke and I made her fudge so she was able to share it with her favorite son as she did every year at Christmas! That is a tradition I will always keep! As long as I am able, Rodney will have his momma's fudge on Christmas!

Mimi's love will not end with her last breath on this earth! She sewed to many seeds in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren for that. Her love will go on long after she leaves this world! ❤️
