“ Lisa was a sweet, loving, caring wife, mother, and grandmother. She had a big heart and loved to get hugs and kisses. All that knew her are blessed for having her in their life. I am blessed to have had known her 15 years. Married to her 14 years. We had a wonderful life together. I know she loved God and is completely healed and have no doubt she's been running down the streets of Gold, first to see Jesus, then Poppa and Mammy, and all the family already there. Singing and shouting praises to God and having so much fun. I encourage all who knew her to live your life for Jesus so you can see her again. God bless you all. Love, Chris Conner

“Lisa was a kind, caring individual who deeply loved all her family. Her loved ones were always on her heart, in her prayers, and in her conversation. We were always so glad to see her worshipping at church when she was well enough to attend. May God's loving hand of comfort rest upon Brother Chris and her extended family members. Harold and Brenda Payne, Weaver Church of God.
