“ I loved this lady. I have known her all my life. One precious thing she always did. Was nod her head when the singing or preaching got good at Leatherwood or I'm sure at all churches. She really loved the Lord and planted many seeds. She sure will be missed here but heaven gained a blessing.

“ I loved Lois so much. I was going to Concord Baptist Church when Lous was going there. She was a wonderful Sunday School teacher. She had a great sense of humor. She was so sweet. I loved her so much. I was so sad when she moved back to Anniston/Oxford area. I had her phone number for awhile. I visited her when she lived in the white house. I am truly sorry for her passing. Lois was a wonderful Christian friend. Lois' family has my deepest sympathy and prayers.
