Family and faith were the foundation of Louise's life. She was self-taught in many areas of her life. Louise taught herself how to sew at an early age and make her own clothes. Her skills led to twenty years of employment with Anniston Sportswear as a seamstress. Quilting was a special skill that she enjoyed and supported through her church Quilting Guild. She was a remarkable cook and baker; her German Chocolate cake was a family favorite served for birthdays and special occasions; her fried pies were always in demand at the church bazaar.

Louise was a member of Eulaton United Methodist Church, the Sam Starr Sunday school class, the United Methodist Women supporting many volunteer opportunities. What she loved most was being surrounded by her family and church community.

A celebration of Louise's life will be held Sunday, June 3 at 2p.m. at Eulaton United Methodist Church, 401 Westover Road, Anniston, AL 36201.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers donations be made in Louise's honor and memory to Eulaton United Methodist Women in care of Eulaton United Methodist Church.

“ Tony, I'm so sorry about your Grandmother. You were a great son/grandson to her, and I know she loved you and you sure showed that you loved her. She's at peace now, and you no longer have to worry about her. It means a lot to know that you took care of her and loved her so much.

Tony, It saddens me to hear of the loss of your beloved grandmother. You truly are the wind beneath her wings, for you loved and cared for her so unselfishly. She is at peace and will rest with the Lord. May God comfort you.
