“ oh my goodness. My heart is literally broken so bad. I knew Maddi as a very beautiful, independent, strong, and most caring person. My condolences go out to her family and friends. Me and Maddi haven't talked in a while and i'm just finding out about her passing. Im praying for her soul and her family. 😞❤️

“ I have many great memories with Madison! We went to church together, she helped me with my kids, she took care of me immediately, when I was a new mom she would come over and we would eat Lunch and she would help me. She was such a sweet beautiful girl, she would definitely be missed. Fly high with the angels beautiful.

“ Maddi was such a light in my life. She dated my son Jaden and he cared about her so much. He passed away on 02/03/2024. Maddi came and sat with me and would just let me sit when I wanted and talk when I wanted.

She was so caring and loving. Every time, after that, that we were together we'd take a picture together. And she always texted me to check on me. I will miss her so much. It truly saddens me that I will not get to see her again. Mostly I'm so Sad for all of you, just know that I do understand what you're going through losing your, daughter, sister, niece. And I know she loved her sweet little Zane. God Bless You All. Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend due to having Covid.
