“ My sympathies and prayers go out to the family. She was a beautiful lady and loved by so many. Attended church with her and Byron at Greenbriar Rd. Baptist Church. Such a sweet Christian lady.

“ Shon she was a great lady. I know you and you family are going to miss her. She lived a good life and is living an even better one now. There are no words I can say to take the pain away except someday you will be with her again.

“ I always referred to Ms Mae as “The Queen of Oxford” I first met her when Byron was still living. Their relationship to me having been raised in the Midwest, was everything I had read in novels about a true southern gentleman and his beloved! A magical devoted pair. Rest In Peace Miss Mae I fell certain Mr Byron has made ready for you a small place in Heaven where you will once again be his Queen! My condolences to my dear friend Jerri and the rest of the family. Barbara Miller
