

Mrs. Margaret Digby Crocker

July 25, 1942 - July 8, 2025

A strong and determined woman who loved and cherished her family. Leaning on her faith and family in times of need. She will be forever missed in the earthly form by her husband of 61 years Richard Crocker, her only daughter Katherine Fleming, her two grandchildren, Eric and Emily, Fleming, and other relatives. From Oxford, Alabama to West Palm Beach, Florida to back in Oxford, Alabama; she persevered and triumphed. The road was hard and not long enough, but she has won the final victory, eternal health and peace, born again with the Lord. She will be waiting for our arrival with her parents, brother, and beloved pets.

Tribute Wall

MA

“ My beautiful cousin i was shocked to know you had passed. Noone told me. May you Rip with Howard, and your parents. I'll cherish our times that we had. Mary hope.

Marydplante - November 15, 2025 at 03:19 PM

MD

“ Margie was such a good friend and sister in Christ,. She would babysit my 2 children, Suzanna and Luke at the drop of a hat. They loved going over to her house, so kind and loving. From: Michelle Walton

Michelle Walton from Trinity Temple days - July 25, 2025 at 09:06 PM