“ God bless Marlene's family and friends. I remember her best from my childhood days at Leatherwood Baptist Church. She was a very kind loving lady.

“ Marlene was my neighbor for the last 7 years. I knew she was very kind. Always liked to look nice and loved reading her Bible on her coffee table in the early morning hours. She would sometimes help me get my dogs because they would come to her, John, Ruth, and Michael Jr. And she loved to sweep her porch and take care of her hanging flowers. I seen her when she had hope and when she learned of the bad news. She was a fighter till the end. Inspirational to me and will be missed.
