Martha was a graduate of UAB Dentistry School as a dental hygienist. She worked for many years in the Medical Arts building in Anniston. It was there she met George and fell in love. She was always involved in the community and served as president of the United Methodist Women groups in all of the churches in various cities she and George lived in.

Her outgoing personality and love for the arts and music started early on as being on the 1962 Maid of Cotton court, playing first chair trumpet at Wellborn High School and singer in the Joy Belles Chorus. Her creative side led her to own various businesses in Anniston such as To-Lips Crafts and Wallpaper For

You. Her greatest love was family, friends and being a faithful servant of Christ.

“ Aunt Martha was a beautiful southern lady who shined her light so everyone else felt better. We loved her southern accent and contagious laughter as she shared her stories and waited to hear what others had to share. Her joy will always be a special memory. Our condolences to Uncle George and family.
