

Mary E Coalson

August 28, 1916 - October 29, 2011

Mary Coalson age 95 of Anniston, AL was welcomed into God's glory October 29, 2011. Mrs. Coalson began her teaching career in Carrollton, Ga having graduated from West Georgia College. The family relocated to Oxford in 1945 where she later graduated from Jacksonville State Teachers College with a degree in education. She taught sixth grade at Eulaton and transferred to Oxford Elementary in 1952 and taught fourth grade until she retired in 1979. her life was dedicated to serving God at Lakeview Baptist Church where she taught Sunday School, GA's, served as church Librarian and any activity to further God's glory. The loves of her life were her two sons, Tony and Tommy to whom she instilled and taught direction and purpose. In 1973 her interest and visits brought her to Viet Nam to visit her son Tony and his wife Sharon. Her son Tommy accompanied her on that trip, visiting Tokyo, Hong Kong and then to Saigon. After we relocated to Singapore she visited them there. Sharon took her for a tour of the Philippines and toured through Malaysia and though Thailand. She also visited Israel, Egypt and other countries among her many travels. Mrs. Coalson influenced and inspired the lives of many along the way with words of encouragement and a helping hand. She will always be remembered by her warm smile, a hug and a friendly greeting to all she met. She is fondly remembered by a host of nieces and nephews who loved and adored her. The family dinners and times with family were her treasured memories. Every one looked forward to her special Ambrosia at Christmas and family dinners as a time where the warm and loving families could come together for fellowship. Teaching was her life's calling and she taught and loved her students as if they were her own. At last she has found eternal peace in God's loving care. Funeral services for Mrs. Coalson will be on Thursday, November 3, 2011, 11:00 AM at Lakeview Baptist Church. The Rev. Jerry Starling will be officiating. Burial will follow in Pleasant View Cemetery in Carrollton, GA. Mrs. Coalson will lie in state at the church on Thursday from 10 until service time.
