Mary helped raise 5 generations of children.All who Love and will greatly miss her.I know I sure will.Going to miss the phone calls and stories of our family history.I remember 2 of her nephews and 1 great nephew pulling a phone prank on her.She told them she'd pay them back.They worried about that for a couple of years.I remember the swimming trips to Tylers mill.I don't know how she kept up with all of us but she did.Great Lady,great times and great memories.I'm going to miss her.always.

“ When I was small Mary was my second mother.As i grew older she became my best buddy,as well as my other three sisters. Always telling jokes pulling jokes on each other and having to watch your pay back because it was coming whenever. If I could write a book about our good times no one would not believe most of it but I bet you it would be a best seller!!!! I will carry her forever in my heart It's not goodbye but I'll see youlater. Love Thelma
