“ When I first met Molly she had the sweetest smile.. Molly and her best friend Flora were so funny, they talked about going to Bham, getting things for their kids. They would leave early in the morning and spend the rest of the night in their car. The laughs they shared were so contagious. Some mornings Molly would come into the kitchen, whatcha fixin for lunch? She would smile and say potato soup?. It was such pleasure for me to know Molly, she loved her job and the kids were always her first priority. Chris was the love of her life, Daulton and Lacie were so lucky to have one of the prettiest and loving moms. We love and miss you Molly. Granny "B" and Papa Jack.

“ Molly showed my daughter Tristan love as if she were her own (before she had her own children). I remember how she loved frogs from way back when.. She was always so proud of her children. She was a true angel and will forever be looking down on ALL her babies. Fly high sweet angel..
